Bone Music is the start of the Burning Girl series, which I bought because I have an ARC of book three, Blood Victory, which comes out next month, and I cant bear to read series out of order. I had assumed it was a trilogy but the blurb for that one doesnt indicate its the end so happily it seems I have a new longer series to look forward to.

Bone Music (Burning Girl, #1), Blood Echo (Burning Girl, #2), and Blood Victory (Burning Girl, #3)

Burning Girl Series by Christopher Rice - Goodreads

“A stellar and gripping opening to the Burning Girl Series introduces the tough, smart Trina Pierce, aka Charlotte Rowe, who survived a childhood of murder and exploitation to discover there might be another way to fight back...Readers will be eager for the next installment in Rice's science-fiction take on The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo.” —Booklist (starred review)

Bone Music - Christopher Rice

Bone music is a long read. It took an age to get into it, but somehow the writing kept me intrigued enough to continue. And come the last third I couldn't put it down. Bone music is heavy, dealing with serial killing from a victim cum vigilante perspective.
