What? Among his many endeavours, Ponti was also a publisher. In 1928 he founded the design magazine Domus (Latin for "house") with his friend Gianni Mazocchi, and edited the publication until his death (with only a short break between 1941 and 1948), writing at least one article in each of the 560 issues he produced. The magazine is still published to this day, and in celebration of its 90 ...
