My DFs roaming in the gloaming: you inspire me. You are the very reason I am here now. You challenge me to plop my comments with vigor and sink my teeth into Shauna snark with unbridled joie de vivre. You drive me to snark responsibly, smashingly and slitheringly. (You also inspired me to double-check where the hell I keep my Social Security card.)

Why Our Lady of the Gloaming? : InTheGloaming

Kirsty Logan writes a beautifully imagined tale of magic, folklore and fairytales with a strong undertow of darker forces juxtaposed with a gritty realism. Logan achieves the feat with her world building that is sufficiently nebulous and ambiguous in giving the reader the path of seeing and interpreting the novel as they wish.
