Woody Guthrie Joe Klein

Joe Klein's biography of Woody Guthrie was published in 1980, before Klein became known as a liberal political writer and columnist. It's still, in my view, the definitive study of the Dust Bowl singer-songwriter who composed "This Land is Your Land" and condensed John Steinbeck's "The Grapes of Wrath" into a six-minute ballad.

Woody Guthrie by Joe Klein - Goodreads

Long before Joe Klein created a sensation by cloaking himself in anonymity and writing Primary Colors, he penned what has come to be considered the definitive biography of an American folk legend, Woody Guthrie: A Life. From Guthrie's youth in the hills of Oklahoma to his days as a politically active troubadour and his final years spent battling a debilitating disease in New York City, Klein's insightful, affectionate, but unsparing portrait captures the very essence of the man.
