Back to "From the Land of Green Ghosts", this work has a very different and unique voice. Because unlike justly admired Suu Kyi, here you get a chance to hear the voice of an "ordinary", intelligent and ambitious student, and also the voice of non-Bamar Burmese (who are the majority in Burma) and I found it highly refreshing.

PART I The Land of the Green Isles Edit. The land of the Green Isles is an ancient kingdom ruled by a royal family designated simply as the " Crown ". Its location so far from the rest of the known world, combined with the dangers of the surrounding sea, have effectively isolated it from the influence of other lands.

Guidebook to the Land of the Green Isles | King's Quest ...

An ancient and peaceful kingdom, the Land of the Green Isles has long been the subject of much debate as to whether the land is a reality or if it is just a work of a great imagination. Until recently, the land was largely dismissed as being myth. The land is a place of vague boundaries--as if islands come and go.
