methods are good, but
not enough.

Throughout the book's
chapters, De Bono
provides examples of the new way of thinking he suggests,
which he calls "lateral thinking".

It is clear that this is an appeal to young people to think carefully about their Creator, not merely to remember that he is there. The thought is: recall God's presence daily; live in a relationship with him; seek to discover the greatness and glories of God while you are still young, before it is too late.

But it may not be too late to avoid or limit some of the worst effects of climate change. Responding to climate change will involve a two-tier approach: 1) “mitigation” - reducing the flow of greenhouse gases into the atmosphere; and 2)

“adaptation” - learning to live with, and adapt
